

IICRC Carpet Cleaning (CCT)

- The most commonly encountered natural (wool, cotton, silk, sisal) and synthetic (nylon, polyester, olefin, acrylic, rayon) carpet fibers- characteristics
- The carpet manufacturing process: fiber selection, fiber production, (natural, synthetic continuous filament and stubble), yarn manufacturing (spinning, twisting, heat setting), construction (tufted, woven, fusion bonded), dyeing, and finishing - how each step effects clean ability.
- Fundamentals of cleaning: dry soil removal (vacuums and vacuuming), soil suspension (chemical action, heat agitation, time), related to every cleaning job.
- Cleaning methods: hot water extraction, absorbent pad (bonnet) cleaning, absorbent compound, rotary and dry foam shampoo, and encapsulation low moisture cleaning.
- Corrective and restorative deep cleaning: equipment, procedures, indoor environmental quality.
- Operational efficiency: van accessories, portable heaters, injection sprayers, electric sprayers, battery sprayers, pump up sprayers, cleaning wands and wand technique and power wands.
- Fundamentals of cleaning chemistry: the ph scale, spotting, and effects on carpet fiber; soaps and detergents; hard waters effects upon cleaning; specific solution selection (pre-sprays, rising/extractions, encapsulation, bonnet, rotary or dry foam and boosters)
- Carpet Spotting: contents of spotting kits, spot and stain removal chemical selection, unknown spots, application and procedures, reducing bleaches, oxidizing bleaches, stain removal kits, specific spot and stain removal procedures.
- Safety and job considerations: MSDS, hazard communication, chemical safety, equipment safety, hose handling, customer service considerations waste water handling.
- Carpet problems: detects, characteristics, installation cleaning related problems (shrinkage, streaking, accelerated re-soiling, fungi growth, browning, bleeding, furniture stains), inspection, prevention, customer education and correction.
- Specialty areas: deodorization, carpet and fabric protection, cleaning stain resistant warranted carpets.

Fast Track Diversity for Success Hands on w/Doug Heiferman Spot & Stain Removal, Upholstery Cleaning & Odor Control

November 10, 2016

Instructor: Doug Heiferman

8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

RegistrationFREE

Registrants receive manual & home made meal.

Testing fees of $65 are separate and paid to the Clean Trust before testing.

Questions?
Call 952-926-7117

Space is limited, call to register 952-926-7117 | 800-726-4686

Date, time & price subject to change. Please call for current schedule.